

The Farmer Review of the Construction Industry: 'Modernise or Die'

'Demand Led Skills Transformation'

Mark Farmer Sustainable Building Training Summit 6th December 2017

IF NECESSITY IS THE MOTHER OF INVENTION, DISCONTENT IS THE FATHER OF PROGRESS.

The 'Sector Deal' When Combined with Wider Autumn Budget Announcements Creates a 'Game Changer' Moment for Construction HM Treasury 5.25 Construction skills - The government will support industry to help ensure that there is a workforce fit to build these homes, providing £34 million to scale up innovative training models across the country, including a programme in the West Midlands. The government is working AUTUMN BUDGET 2017 with industry to finalise a Construction Sector Deal that will support innovation and skills in the sector, including £170 million of investment through the Industrial Strategy Challenge Fund. Construction skills will also be a focus for the National Retraining Scheme. (31) 4.52 Construction - The government is taking a series of steps to improve the cost effectiveness, productivity and timeliness of infrastructure delivery. The government will use its purchasing power to drive adoption of modern methods of construction, such as offsite manufacturing. Building on progress made to date, the Department for Transport, the Department of Health, the Department for Education, the Ministry of Justice, and the Ministry of Defence will adopt a presumption in favour of offsite construction by 2019 across suitable capital programmes, where it represents best value for money. Cast
